Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Robert Dinterman was an amazing course instructor. He had a great sense of humor and always wanted us to understand the material in the most clear and concise manner. He was always willing to help students after class and any other time that a student had a question. His lab outlines were fantastic and were a great study aid when in preparation for the Exams. He always was willing to go over questions for as long as students needed until they fully grasped the concept. He was also extremely prompt in returning e-mails. I got sick a couple of times throughout the semester and he always wrote me back immediately and sent the lab outline so I never felt behind at all. Robert has no weaknesses in his teaching methods.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	He's good and can explain things well.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Bob was a great teacher who had all the resources we needed to learn and thus do well in the class.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Prepared good work sheets and complemented the lecture nicely.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	He was very helpful in making the broad concepts of the class easier to understand, and put them in terms that most of us students would comprehend better. Very good lab instructor.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Knew what he was talking about, knew how much the class could bare before we just zoned out.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Pretty basic but still made you think.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Reinforced fundamentals of economics
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	The lab is probably better than the actual course.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	The lab is a great resource to have for the overall course since the lecture is so large.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the lab (if applicable)	Consistent with the course, reinforced general knowledge
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the lab (if applicable)	The lab was comprised of in class time in addition to problem sets and quizzes. The lab was necessary to my comprehension of the course. I have only benefitted from the Lab, I can think of nothing that I found that was a weakness of this portion of the course.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the lab (if applicable)	Good complement to the lecture.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Very good at explaining more difficult concepts.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Robert is a great TA! He really cleared up any problems I was having in lecture. I really like the worksheets he made for us. Those were really good studying tools for the whole lecture. It's nice to have a TA that actually cares if we're learning and is willing to put forth the effort to make us study guides.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Excellent teacher. The only reason I have a 100 in economics is because of this class.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Very smart and to the point.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	The instructor was VERY helpful in explaining concepts that were missed during lecture. The use of practice tests and worksheets were a great way to review and help with overall success in the course.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Knows what he teaches
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	he explained material well
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Even though he is a Lab TA, he was extremely helpful and much better than a great deal of my other professors. Excellent teacher.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	was effective at reinforcing the material learned during the lecture
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Very helpful and useful
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	His lab handouts were extremely helpful.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Very helpful in understanding economics.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Overall this course was great. The worksheets helped me learn the material and the quizzes were good tools that helped me practice for the exams. I wish we could've discussed more topics that apply to the real world.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Its economics
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	too much stuff to understand

Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	Yes. He went above and beyond what I believe was expected of him as an instructor and the information he provided us outside of the information we gathered from the lectures was sensational. If we came to him in an effort to achieve a good grade, he would provide us with all the help necessary. Excellent instructor.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	Yes, because without this class I would not be doing well in economics. Mr. Dinterman has made this lab portion of the class more useful than the long lectures. He makes it short and simple but it explains everything efficiently.
