

Question	Response
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Mr. Dinterman seemed like a positive teacher but chose to teach in the form of questions, which, if not answered by the class (which they never were) he never fully answered himself. He stated that he didnt believe in curves, even when class averages were in the low seventies. I was unsatisfied with his teaching style, as were others from what I heard. I completely taught myself through the book.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	NO
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	The quality was little to none, if I had known any better or could retake the course with another instructor I would. Dinterman became less excited about teaching as the year went on. While he is a nice man, he needs to ditch the whole asking questions to teach and realize that no one knows the answer.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Strengths: Instructor was enthusiastic and kept my attention well with funny examples. Weaknesses: Although the instructor was thorough in explaining details, there were times when it was difficult to get the whole picture. I struggled with how everything eventually connected.
Other comments	Giving more examples in class would be beneficial. Reviews before tests would help too. Reading the book helped me understand how all of the details we talked about in class come together in the end and how the connect. Without reading the book I would not understand what is going on. If I read the chapter before we go over it in class, I understand how everything works. If I do not read before, I struggle understanding how all of the concepts intersect.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Good effort. Personally, I find the class would be very difficult without the book. But you can tell he wants us to understand and tries to keep us engaged.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	lots of info being taught, maybe a bit too much with the amount of time we're given, but we can deal

Other comments	Needs to make ECONOMICS in general easier and easier to understand.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	No.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	The quality of the instruction could be better and more straight forward.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Strengths: Good sense of humor, tries to make class fun by using interesting examples Weaknesses: Needs to write notes differently. I have trouble following what he writes down, and I know most of my class feels the same way. By the end of class, my notes are unreadable. He also sometimes writes them in a confusing way. I would suggest that he switch to powerpoint lectures.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Strengths:I like the fact that EC 202 is a smaller class compared to EC 201. I felt like I learned more in the class. Weakness: Needs to have more tests.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	The strengths of the instructor include his preparedness for every class. The weakness of the instructor include his lectures being unclear at times.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	The course taught me about all aspects that I can use to apply to the real world. I would recommend this course for all students to take so that they are aware of what is ahead of them and apply to use in the future. There are no weaknesses for this course.
Other comments	Mr. Dinterman's grading curve was very helpful. I did not enjoy the examples he used when teaching economic concepts.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	No
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	The quality of instruction were sometimes unclear as the examples he presented with the class lectures did not help much. The book and online quizzes were more valuable aids to learning.
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	He really explains things fully and explains them so that they are easy to understand. He also doesn't just write out what is exactly in the book, he explains it in his own way.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	It seems to cover most of the important basics of macroeconomics.
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Good teacher. Knew his stuff.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Hard exams
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Good
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	The instructor fully understands the material that is being taught in the course, which is beneficial when asking questions that I was unsure of. However, it seems that the notes were a bit unorganized and sometimes hard to follow. Of course, with the help of the instructor, I was able to better understand the topics he was trying to explain in class.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	The course covers an excellent overview of macroeconomics in a nutshell. Although the information is necessary for analysis of economic information, there was not much relationship to real-world perspectives and examples on how we could apply macroeconomics terms and understanding in our future careers and lives.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	I learned a lot of quality information about macroeconomics-- simply speaking, economics from a macro lens that help me now construct my understanding of economic events from a different perspective!
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	I appreciate how he connected to his students and taught in a contemporary way.
-----	-----

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Strengths were he always presented the material thoroughly and he was always prepared for class. Weakness was the graphs he drew were always to cluttered and it was hard to copy them down.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Strengths it gave me a better scope of economics.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	Yes, he was always prepared and presented the material with great detail. He tried to make the class fun with humorous examples to keep the class active.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	The quality was very high, probably the best instruction I've ever received for an economic course.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Dr. Dinterman tries too much to be that cool frat guy he was in college. He is a great person however I feel like he is not excited about teaching. He gets students confused very easily with his teaching ways.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Econ is a tough course overall no matter the instructor.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	No, I feel like he did not earn this award. He is a very cool person outside of the classroom but inside his teaching skills need refined.

How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	I feel like if I wanted to do well on the tests I had to do everything on my own.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Strengths of the Instructor were that he was adequantly prepared for the course and was very informative about the information. weakness was that he spoke in a mellow tone voice.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Strengths of the course were that course flowed in a systematic order that made it easy to grasp the information. Weakness is that the course information was exactly what was in the book which made coming to class a bit of a waste.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	I would like to nominate the Instructor because, unlike many other instructors I have had in college he was really able to connect with the students. He used real world examples especially those that he knew college students would be interested in to really help us understand the material as well as relate to it.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	I would describe the quality of instruction as great for the kind of material we were learning. The subject matter was not too difficult and reading the text as well as coming to class made it very efficient to learn the material
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	The chapter quizzes are really helpful in reinforcing key concepts. I frequently came to him after class, and he was always willing and patient enough to explain the concepts to me. However, I think he should improve on his presentation of the course material. It seems like he knows what he's talking about, but it's hard for him to keep the class's attention.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	No.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Good.

-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Strengths: Enthusiastic, aware of current events both political and economic, encourages good behaviors rather than penalizing poor habits. Weaknesses: None that I can think of.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Strengths: Applicable, useful, important Weaknesses: Like econ in general, mostly seems to test by use of trick questions and grey areas.
Other comments	I would suggest not allowing computers in class. Though I did use mine to take notes every day, I found that I frequently lost focus and had to catch up. Poor work ethic on my end, but could be helped by not allowing computers in the first place.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	Yes. Mr. Dinterman was enthusiastic about teaching the course, taught in an effective way that utilized his own experience as well as the textbook, and was over all a teacher whose class I liked going to.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Good. Concise, accurate, and covering the necessary topics within macroeconomics, in addition to some other "life trivia".
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	good at reponding to students, good at covering material that will be on test

How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	good
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Strengths: I liked how he explained the material better than the book sometimes. Also the jokes he made in class such as the Notorious B.I.G problem (mo money mo problems) made class more interesting so it was easier to pay attention.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Weaknesses: The graphs are difficult to understand. Especially when given a test and asked a question about the movement of the graph if an event such as a shock occurs. I believe that this should be further explained.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	I really like Robert Dinterman. I thought he was a great instructor and tried to make the class as entertaining as a economics class could probably get. I also like how he teaches different from the book so if you don't understand how he is teaching it you can go to the book and try to learn the material a different way

Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	Yes, I feel like he related to the students well and was able to clearly convey the difficult topics of this course.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	I would describe the teaching as high quality. Not many teachers can make a "boring" topic interesting or easy to learn as Mr. Dinterman did.

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Robert does a great job making examples that connect to students and keep them engaged in class. Sometimes its hard to follow along his lectures because his handwriting is hard to read.
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	appears to really enjoy teaching and very willing to help but needs to work on the delivery of information. Can often times be confusing and not enough detail is given to fully understand the concepts. Great extra credit idea with the basketball tickets but it seemed the majority of the class did poorly on the third exam and he offered to average our lowest exam and the final to replace that grade followed with "the final exams are usually the lowest scores" so I am not really sure how that was suppose to help us... even though the tests were 25 questions with 1 essay, I often found it a struggle to finish on time and rushed through the exam in order to answer all the questions
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	no
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	good but could have been better
-----	-----

Question	Response
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Very knowledgable and enthusiastic. Did a great job explaining material and was funny as well. However, could slow down when speaking a little bit to let ideas sink in.

How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Very good.
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Very thorough an knowledgeable

Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Tests were much harder than quizzes and readings/ class notes
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Good quality

-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	He knew the material well but he was a little ambiguous with some material which is to be expected with macroeconomics
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	This information is a little ambiguous
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	The professor did well to keep the class entertained and taught fairly well. I found that the tests were especially hard in that they were not really on the information that was taught specifically in the class. The material taught was a little dry but overall I liked the teacher just maybe change some of the content taught in class up.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	I think Robert is a great teacher. He constantly kept the class engaged in the class by asking a lot of questions about the material we were talking about in that period. I would say the one thing that could help other classes in the future is a study guide for the exam. The notes were very useful but maybe some practice problems that are "potential" test questions.
Other comments	I really enjoyed taking the class with Robert. He kept the class laughing and was very easy to talk to outside of the class as well as in class or before class.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	Yes, I think he knows how to teach and operate a classroom. He keeps the class listening and paying attention.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Robert's the man. I also like the way that he writes his notes on the board instead of just making power point slides.
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Is a very excited teacher, and it seems like he enjoys being there.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	The course is relatively easy, but he makes it seem easy.

Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	No, he still needs alot more experience to be considered.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Excellent
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Robert was a good teacher. He explained the material well, and I especially liked, for example, how he wouldn't get mad or something when he asked a question the class didn't know (or wouldn't answer) and an awkward silence would follow.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Overall, the course was okay. I thought Microeconomics was a little bit easier to understand, though.
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Robert was a very passionate professor. He understood macroeconomics extremely well (some teachers I have had don't even understand their subject). His real world examples were not only funny, but they were useful as well. I would write down an example he gave in class, and when I looked back in my notes I would remember exactly what he was describing. Also, he is young which allows him to relate to students and students to him. When a student answered a question incorrectly in class, he would not rat them out or make them feel dumb. I feel like that is a very important quality for a teacher. Some weaknesses would be Robert asked questions in class that we (the class) didn't know yet. I would suggest asking a few less questions in order to avoid some awkward silences.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	This course is more concrete than microeconomics which, to me, is more interesting. I cannot come up with any weaknesses.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	I think Robert was an outstanding teacher because he was extremely knowledgable of the subject. He was funny and related to students with examples of macroeconomic concepts that we can understand (ex: Tailgating, drinking alcohol, etc.). I thoroughly enjoyed attending Robert's class.

How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	high quality
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	He was my favorite instructor this semester and one of the better ones in my college career. He was fair in every aspect, knowledgeable on the material, and entertaining. He taught us what we needed to know by explaining the material in different ways. I really enjoyed his style of teaching. This may just be a conflict I had because I did not purchase the book but I found it somewhat difficult to recognize when one subject/chapter ends and another began. I don't think he labeled his notes when beginning another subject.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	I feel like I learned a great deal about macroeconomics and the price of the textbook is too damn high.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	Yes. Why not?

How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Top notch.
-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Strengths: Enthusiastic about what he taught. Weaknesses: A lot of what he taught was not on the test, tests are very difficult
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	Strengths: teaches a lot about the economy Weaknesses: Is a very hard course if you struggle to grasp the concept
Other comments	I thought there needed to be more assignments in this class than just the quizzes and three tests. The tests are very tricky, I could stay up all night, read the whole entire book, and still fail the tests. His in class lectures did not help either, he was not very organized about his lectures.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Could use improvement, he didn't have powerpoints and his notes were very sloppy and unorganized and for me, hard to learn from.
-----	-----

How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	Great

-----	-----
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Robert is good at being personable and always makes himself available if you need help.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	I am not an economics major so I found that it was really hard to relate with the material which makes the material boring. I would appreciate it if somehow the material became interactive so I would find it easier to pay attention.
Would you like to nominate your instructor for an Outstanding Teacher Award? If yes, why?	No, I don't think he is the best teacher but he did his job perfectly in regards to giving us the information to know. I wouldn't say he went above and beyond the call of duty but I have no complaints.
How would you describe the quality of instruction that you recieved in this class?	He did the best he could I think but like I said before I wish there was more creativity put into how we learn the different topics in the class. Everything is kind of cut and dry so I wish it was more interactive.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the instructor	Robert was super cool.
Comment on strengths and weaknesses of the course	EC 202 gave me the opportunity to reach a new high score in Temple Run on my phone.
